Faith extinguishes Satan's flaming arrows

Nothing beats discouragement, disconnection, and division like trust-based action. When we work together, we can protect each other and advance at the same time—no matter the circumstances.

Ephesians 6:10-20, Joshua 1:9, Hebrews 10:23-25

1 Corinthians 1:10, Romans 12:1-2

We must all use the gifts God gives us

God offers salvation, peace, and many other gifts to everyone, but He also expects His people to work together as one body, making His will happen on earth. He expects us to use what He gives us to serve Him, each other, and the world.

Romans 3:23-24, John 14:27, Matthew 3:31-32

Romans 12:9-21, 1 Peter 4:8-9, James 1:17, Luke 19:11-27

We must each play our part

God creates and empowers each of us in unique ways, but there are specific gifts that we can expect the Holy Spirit to give every group of believers. It's our job to find out which parts He wants each of us to play—and play them!

1 Peter 4:10-11, Romans 12:3-8, 1 Corinthians 12:4-31

Lord, as part of Your body, I will...

Lord, to clarify the part You created me to play, I will...
