

LIFE GROUP QUESTIONS

BARNABAS & . . .

October 20, 2019

Choose encouragement over comfort

Share a time that someone stuck up for you and gave you an opportunity that changed your destiny. Perhaps they invited you to church, introduced you to someone, helped you get a job, helped you reconcile with a friend...

Share a time that you said or did something a little uncomfortable to help someone else along. Perhaps you confronted them, stuck up for them, risked your own reputation to become or remain their friend...

Acts 4:32-37, 9:26-31, 10-11, 13-15; Colossians 4:1

Take action: do what needs to be done

Share a time someone didn't just speak encouragement to you; they stepped in and did something to help.

Share a time you took action to help someone else in a tangible way.

Proverbs 27:17, Mark 2:1-12

Engage, Commit. Go ALL IN

Share a time someone's commitment to you helped you grow and become a better person.

Share a time your commitment to someone else helped them reach their potential.

Share a relationship where you are ALL IN but need prayer and possibly help for things to get better.

2 Timothy 4:11, 1 Peter 5:13

Stop criticizing and start encouraging

Share one reason it's hard to be totally honest and specific when trying to encourage others.

Share one totally honest and specific thing you love about each of the people in your group.

Proverbs 27:6, Romans 12:8, 1 Thessalonians 5:11
